

Gifted Women Rhapsody, By Claire
Sung to the tune of Bohemian Rhapsody

Is this your real life,
Is this a fantasy,
Caught in your own mind,
No escape from anxiety,
Open your eyes,
Look to each side and see,

We are not poor girls,
We don't need sympathy,
We need self esteem, our confidence,
Belief in self, worthiness,
Hear what others tell you and you'll start to see,
Start to see,

Women,
Hold our heads up high,
We've been through a lot of pain,
Time to start living again,
Women,
All we have to do,
Is believe in each other,
And see the truth,
Women, (ohohoh)
We have no time to cry,
Stand tall and show the strength you have concealed,
So carry on, carry on,
Let's show them who we are.

One step,
That is all it takes,
And our journeys have begun,
Time to heal and carry on,
Hello new beginnings,
It's our time to grow,
Time to leave the past behind and start anew.

Women, (ohohoh)
We are gonna try,
To show the world how amazing we really are!

I see a little ray of sunlight shining through,
Look at us, look at us,
We're embracing a new chapter,
Challenging, exciting but Very very frightening indeed!
Gifted Women, Gifted Women,
Gifted Women, Gifted Women,
Gifted women, we will grow!

Now we're on our journey,
Learning we are worthy,
Making new friends and learning new skills,
Baby steps, baby steps, as we start to grow,
Inspiring, as they watch us grow,
(Watch us grow) inspiring, self esteem begins to flow,
(Begins to flow) inspiring, confidence begins to glow,
(Begins to glow), inspiring, look how far these women go,
Women go ohohohoho go, go, go, go
Gifted Women, Gifted Women, Gifted women, how far will you now go?
Believe yourselves and you will achieve all you can be, can be, can be.....

So they thought they could stop us and keep us denied,
So they thought they could beat us and feed us their lies,
Oh baby, we got out of that baby,
Just gonna go live,
Just gonna go live our new lives,

Now we know we matter,
Now they all can see,
We are Gifted Women, now we're free!
